

BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

AT GUTHRIE & BROTHERS, 112 Fourth Street.

Look to your interests.

The people are aware that O. H. O'Leary, No. 427 Main street, is the oldest, largest and most experienced manufacturer of trunks and similar articles in the city. They should avail themselves of the great opportunities afforded by Mr. O'Leary. To country and city merchants he offers peculiar advantages in his wholesale department, while in the retail line he cannot be equaled. Whoever wants to travel, whether with a small carpet-bag or a mammoth trunk, need go no further than to the Great Western Trunk-Factory of Mr. O'Leary. His manufactory is a credit to Louisville, and should meet with extensive patronage. Hundreds of workmen are employed, and thousands of dollars weekly disbursed. As a matter of course, price and to a substantial economy, purchasers will commend their best interests in purchasing of Mr. O'Leary.

Louisville and Albany Railroad.

Trains leave and arrive at New Albany as follows:

Nichols Accommodation leaves at 1:15, P. M. St. Louis Day Express leaves at 8:05, P. M. Chicago and St. Louis Express Mail leaves at 10:10, A. M.; arrives at 3:10, P. M. Chicago and St. Louis Night Express leaves at 10:15, P. M.; arrives at 6:50, A. M.

Medicines for the Cholera Fever and Ague.

London's do, Smith's do, Graham's do, Urban's do, Ague Mixture, Speed's do, Tonic, Rowan's do, Ague Mixture, Hughes' do, India do, which are approved remedies. Call at our store, No. 4 South street, opposite the National Hotel.

RAYMOND A. TYLER.

Doors, Blinds and Sash Factories.

All kinds of doors, blinds, sash, frames, mantels, base, architraves, pilasters, moldings, sash primed and glazed, boxes, yellow pine white pine flooring, steamboat decking, shoring, dressed and undressed lumber, weather-boarding, &c., also, all kinds of dressing, siding, rapping, scroll sawing, &c., done to order with neatness and dispatch, at the lowest cash prices, call at the Clay-street Planing Mill, on Clay street, near the river, Louisville, Ky. Send for bill of prices.

All lumber used in manufactory, kiln-dried.

Shakespeare in Dressing.

Shakespeare, who, according to some, was a little ability and of considerable originality, says, very sagaciously, that "the apparel oft proclaims the man." This fact is undeniable, and had the great poet flourished two hundred and seventy-five years later, he would, doubtless, have made old Polonius go a step farther, and advise his son to purchase all his apparel only at No. 4 Masonic Temple. Mr. Swain has an excellent assortment of clothing, and a gentleman's furnishing goods as can be found in the city, and he is prepared to furnish every thing in his line.

Unhealthy Bread.

Unhealthy Bread.—In no article of food should more care be exercised than in the "staff of life." Bread, in order to be healthy and nutritious, good food and pure yeast are necessary. Hurley's Quick Yeast is the best article to use, and in using it there is no fear of allowing a dyspeptic with your breakfast.

LOOK AT THE AUTHORITY.

DR. ROBAC.—Dr. Robac is due to you and the public, more especially the afflicted, in that he has given your invaluable Scandinavian Blood Purifier a fair trial in a number of cases of disease arising from unhealthy blood, in all of which it has exceeded my expectations, and comes fully up to the recommendations I do, therefore, with pleasure, recommend it to all the afflicted whose disease indicates a remedy of that description.

See advertisement, or send for a copy.

Advice to Ladies.

ADVICE TO LADIES.—We are aware there are many of our lady readers who are complaining of weakness and debility. Our advice is to go at once and get some of McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It is a delicious tonic, and just the thing to strengthen and invigorate the whole system, and purify the blood. See advertisement in another column. Sold here by all drug stores.

Elegant, Neat and Tasty.

ELEGANT, NEAT AND TASTY.—M. A. Armstrong, on Main, opposite the National Hotel, has the most elegant cook of meat and boys' clothing, which he is now offering at great bargains. There is want of superior, hand-made, well-made clothing, at very low prices, for either men or youths' wear, will consult their interest by visiting Armstrong's at once.

Peas and Spectacles.

PEAS AND SPECTACLES.—If you wear a pair of eye spectacles, either the public, price, or crystal, go to P. W. Ramsey's, on Third street, where you will find a great variety. He cannot fail to suit you.

Velvet and Cloth Goods.

VELVET AND CLOTH GOODS, SHAWLS, RICH FANCY SILKS, POPLINS, VELVETS, MERINOS, DE LAINES, BLACK SILK MACHES, LACES AND LITTONS BORGES, &c.—G. B. Tabb, corner of Fourth and Market streets, has just received, by express, a large and handsome assortment of the above goods, which he is offering at an unusually low price. Many of the above goods differ in style and design from any goods heretofore received in the Market. We cordially recommend this house to ladies in search of the latest and richest goods imported at low prices. Store on the southeast corner of Fourth and Market streets.

Furniture.

FURNITURE.—We invite the special attention of strangers visiting the city, or persons contemplating house-keeping, to the large and elegant assortment of furniture at the warehouses of Messrs. John M. Stokes & Son. They have constantly on hand the largest and best assortment of parlor, chamber and dining-room furniture to be found in any one house in the Western country, which they are selling at prices which cannot fail to suit their customers. This firm is the oldest in the city; their work may be relied on as the best that can be made. We would advise all who are wanting articles in their line to call on No. 635 Main st. if

Good News.

GOOD NEWS.—At a time like this, when the stock of dry lumber is small and badly assorted, we take pleasure in informing the public that Alexander, Ellis & Co. have three millions feet of dry lumber, well assorted; and they are turning out large quantities of sash, doors, blinds, flooring, and every article of building material, of the best quality, at their cash, door and blind manufactory, on Fulton street, just above Third street. Call at their office, No. 4 Main street, nearly opposite the Gall House, Louisville, Ky.

Furniture.

FURNITURE.—We invite the special attention of strangers visiting the city, or persons contemplating house-keeping, to the large and elegant assortment of furniture at the warehouses of Messrs. John M. Stokes & Son. They have constantly on hand the largest and best assortment of parlor, chamber and dining-room furniture to be found in any one house in the Western country, which they are selling at prices which cannot fail to suit their customers. This firm is the oldest in the city; their work may be relied on as the best that can be made. We would advise all who are wanting articles in their line to call on No. 635 Main st. if

Daily Democrat.

Printed and Published by HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office: East Side Third Street, between Market and Jefferson.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IN ADVANCE.

DAILY DEMOCRAT—$5 per annum in advance. Daily DEMOCRAT—$1 per month in advance. Daily DEMOCRAT—$1 per month in advance.

Advertising in Daily Democrat.

One square (10 lines) first insertion, $1.00. Each additional insertion, 50 cents.

Weekly Democrat, $1.00 per annum in advance.

Each additional insertion, 50 cents.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 7, 1860.

Disunion.

We shall not deny that there are disunionists North and South; that there are some in the Southern States who desire disunion, and some in the North who would rule or ruin most of them hope to rule, but not succeeding they will try to ruin. Some apprehensions are felt that the Union is in danger, and if we listen to politicians at Washington, we might think so. But look at the ties that bind this Union together, and then ask if they can be severed. The millions are their comfort and prosperity to the free intercourse between these States. The personal interests of men are wrapped up in this Union. The slightest dollar disunion between North and South will not stop.

These things are beyond the control of politicians.

These things are beyond the control of politicians. They may resolve, and formally separate, but it will be a separation on paper. The end of the Union may separate from the other, or think they can do it, but how will neighboring States separate? Believe it or not, politicians, the whole thing is absurd. Force can't keep the Union together, but there is a power in business interests, and social relations, and patriotic sentiment, that can and will. We advise all who talk of dissolving the Union, that they should appreciate the fact. History records no such fact as a dissolution of this Union would be at this day; nor will it record such a fact. It is often threatened that this Union will be dissolved, and that this Union will be dissolved. But a rational cause for a dissolution will never happen. If a sufficient cause to justify it were to happen, it could not even then be accomplished. Habit and tradition would be too strong for even the most solid logic.

Men speak of seceding.

Men speak of seceding. Now we are not going out of our own house, because some of its inmates misbehave. The Union is our lifeblood, and we intend to get them out, in the Union, as well as we can, out of it. In the meantime, we don't expect every man North and South to adopt our theories, and he is a goose who expects so much in any government; nor will we have half the trouble, nor make half the sacrifices to maintain our rights in the Union that our fathers made to establish it. They had to compromise and concede; more than we will have to do; and still they thought they did well; so thought the rest of the world. They valued rights and principles as highly as we do; but whilst they differed, they managed to live together and reap the glorious fruits of their Union.

We are going into a protracted quarrel over our Territories.

We are going into a protracted quarrel over our Territories. Well, if we can't manage such a question, give the Territories away to them. Let us go along without them, and better do so again than to play the fool over them and destroy what we have. Jusque au peuple, go to the Territories, and leave them to themselves. They have a happy faculty of doing it, and will do it, whether we like it or not. Our fathers here in Kentucky made the State themselves with little help from any one, and the experiment can be repeated in every Territory in the country with equal success. All the quarrelling and wrangling of politicians will not change the destiny of a single Territory.

Why waste breath on such an unprofitable subject, which produces only words, without results?

Why waste breath on such an unprofitable subject, which produces only words, without results? We notify all enthusiastic politicians that they had better confine themselves to words when they meditate disunion. Deeds are dangerous, not to the Union, but to the authors of the project. Let the people once be convinced that you are in earnest, and the conviction will not be good for the health of political aspirants.

There are things worse than disunion.

There are things worse than disunion. If it is that is not dispensed; but we are going to have these worse things, our disunion either. These worse things are not in sight, there are negro thieves, to be sure, and their sympathizers with them; and we have had an old Brown & Co. Some are serving in the penitentiary, and old Brown & Co. we hang, and can hang all of the same sort. We have again and again seen trouble lowering in the horizon—insoluble problems—that threatened the destruction of the Union, but the occasion found the men capable of quelling the storm, and the strength of the country was manifested in the hearty congratulations over what was done. It will be no harder to save it than to destroy it. It is far easier to save it than to destroy it.

The people of this Union are not thinking about disunion.

The people of this Union are not thinking about disunion, nor do they intend to suffer anything to be done to justify disunion. The danger is all a grand mistake of politicians; not with more rational men than the people of Kentucky. We shall be told that the institutions of the South are in danger. They were never in less danger than now. Who believes them in danger? Do the slaveholders think that the enormous prices of that species of property answer; and it is daily on the increase. Can't we take care of our own institutions in the Union? Who can assail them with success? What evils are we suffering? Ask the farmer who gets enormous prices for his produce, and enjoy his wealth in liberty and the most certain protection. Ask the mechanic, the laborer, the professional man, who is making progress on his personal property. Where are the oppressions and wrongs we suffer? Oh! we are an ill-used people; we are wanted; and just think what great constitutional rights we are deprived of! If we had half the evils to suffer that the people of nearly every other government have, we might consent, but having none, we are looking for imaginary ones. We firmly believe that there never was a community more prosperous, more happy, or better contented, or better able to take care of themselves in their own government, than the people of the South. Some of them are fretting themselves to death for more slave Territory, when they haven't half negroes enough to give people who they have got, when they will give enough for a few negroes to buy an ordinary Territory.

Abolitionists.

Abolitionists.—The half-breed body found in a vacant cellar of the almshouse building, at Philadelphia, some days ago, proves not to have been that of Jack Wynn, as was claimed by a corrupt jury. Jack Wynn escaped from the almshouse shortly after being placed there, and is now in the almshouse at New York.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.—In the suite of the Governor-General of Eastern Siberia, writes a North China correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, "are three individuals who have been engaged in laying down a route for a line of magnetic telegraph from St. Petersburg to the mouth of the Amoor, and from thence to the island of Japan. The latter part will be of course by submarine. One of the party is well educated and intelligent, and speaks English with fluency, and another is the Circassian prince-in-chief, who is taken into the service of the Russian Government. So noble and princely a firm I never beheld as Askin, and yet of the most perfect symmetry. One beheld him without wonderment and amazement—a higher and nobler emotion, and he is a man of great energy and courage. He said that in some places the forests were so thick that they could make their way through only by the use of axes, cutting down the lumber and trees, and with difficulty making the progress of three miles a day. He also stated that Chinese were encountered within a few days of the route, who had never heard of Russia."

Letter from the State Capital.

By Our Special Correspondent.

(House of Representatives, FRANKFORT, Jan. 6, 1860.)

News, HARRIS, HUGHES & CO.

General: I endeavored this morning in the House to sketch the proceedings as they went on, but found it impossible. There was such a crowd, nearly every member being present, and the aisles were filled with the beauty and fashion of Frankfort. There were the rustle of silk, the flashing of beautiful eyes, and the dear enchantments of roguish lips and dimpled cheeks. It was an occasion such as draws together every body from Frankfort. The Committee on Federal Resolutions reported at half-past six.

It was as quiet as a summer morning. You never would have known that there was human eloquence, pathos, argument, dullness, etc., all struggling under an earnest of ashes to flash up in classic mass. The House went into the Committee of the Whole, and the resolutions of Mr. Hodge, Chairman of the Committee, were read by the Clerk. We have already been there.

Mr. Finn of Simpson, (not of Fleming, as you printed it yesterday), offered the substitute published in yesterday's Democrat, except that he struck out the part relating to the authority of Congress to declare a territorial law null and void. Mr. Meriwether offered an amendment which was rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Letter from the State Capital.

By Our Special Correspondent.

(House of Representatives, FRANKFORT, Jan. 6, 1860.)

News, HARRIS, HUGHES & CO.

General: I endeavored this morning in the House to sketch the proceedings as they went on, but found it impossible. There was such a crowd, nearly every member being present, and the aisles were filled with the beauty and fashion of Frankfort. There were the rustle of silk, the flashing of beautiful eyes, and the dear enchantments of roguish lips and dimpled cheeks. It was an occasion such as draws together every body from Frankfort. The Committee on Federal Resolutions reported at half-past six.

It was as quiet as a summer morning. You never would have known that there was human eloquence, pathos, argument, dullness, etc., all struggling under an earnest of ashes to flash up in classic mass. The House went into the Committee of the Whole, and the resolutions of Mr. Hodge, Chairman of the Committee, were read by the Clerk. We have already been there.

Mr. Finn of Simpson, (not of Fleming, as you printed it yesterday), offered the substitute published in yesterday's Democrat, except that he struck out the part relating to the authority of Congress to declare a territorial law null and void. Mr. Meriwether offered an amendment which was rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Meriwether then offered a series of amendments which were rejected by a vote of 10 to 10.

ESTABLISHED
For the cure of all Private Diseases

[illegible]

W. W. HERRIS, M. D., Assistant, C. H. HERRIS, M. D.,

PERUVIAN SYRU

OR PROTECTED

LESION OF PEPTIDE OF FOOD

The Only Reliable and Permanent Cure for

DYSPEPSIA

GENERAL DEBILITY AND ALL DISORDERS OF
THE DIGESTIVE ORGANS

THE PAINFUL AND REPEATEDLY RETURNING SYMPTOMS OF DYSPEPSIA ARE
THE ONLY
THAT WILL DIS-
TINCTLY
CHARACTERIZE
THE SYMPTOM
OF DYSPEPSIA

THE ONLY CURE IS
THE ONLY
CURE IS THE ONLY
CURE IS

1854

Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Nephritis, Bronchitis, Catarrh of the Bladder, Hemorrhoids, Stricture, Scrophulous Affections, Stomachic Disturbance, Warts, Vitiligo, Eruptions, Leucorrhoea, and all the Diseases of the Skin.

Its Specificity of the Liver &c.

From the experience, it is enough to say that this drug is now everywhere known and used in Boston, and in the Marine Hospital (Boston) Hospital, and in the Marine Hospital (Boston) Hospital, and in the Marine Hospital (Boston) Hospital.

GIFT OF A LETTER FROM DR. W. W. HERRIS

OF THE
OFFICE OF THE
OFFICE OF THE
OFFICE OF THE

[illegible][illegible]

JOHN A. TARRANT & CO., Ltd., Agents for the United States, 411 Broadway, New York City.

As the above variety preparation has been extensively used in Great Britain, and is well known and appreciated by vegetable growers, it is a valuable preventive of blight, and is especially profitable and economical for the grower of the following crops:—

Tomatoes, of which the following is a full analysis:

J. B. THORN,
CHEMIST,
LONDON.

JOHN A. TARRANT & CO.,
NEW YORK.
SOLE AGENTS FOR THE
UNITED STATES.

This stamp around each pot will also bear the name of the Proprietor and the United States Agent.

JOHN A. TARRANT & CO., LTD., 411 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY.

Important Caution.

The increased reputation and great demand for the Thompson Fruit and Vegetable Preparation has led to the manufacture of cheap imitations for the purpose of obtaining the sale of the genuine. Beware of cheap imitations.

Drug Store,
S. V. HALL & CO.,
DRUGGISTS,
NORTH EAST CORNER OF JEFFERSON AND
N. W. streets, Louisville, Ky.

CORNEY SARGENT,
CHEMIST & PHARMACEUT,
N. W. Cor. Eleventh and Market streets
LOUISVILLE, KY.

KEEPS ALL THE LATEST PRESCRIPTIONS ON HAND, AND HAS THE MOST COMPLETE STOCK OF DRUGS AND APOTECARIES.

Established 1827.
CARY & TALBO
DRUGGISTS AND APOTECARIES
453 MARKET STREET, NEW YORK

WE ARE RECEIVING A FRESH SUPPLY OF

[illegible]

50 boxes Java Rahmado;
 50 " " " "
 50 " " " "
 10 cases Chinese
 Assorted Jars Working
 Assorted Spices for Mixed Meals
 20 boxes new Rice
 50 Java New Premium
 50 boxes Java Crackers
 50 boxes Butter Crackers
 50 boxes Cracker Roll
 10 boxes Under Crackers
 50 boxes Soda Crackers
 The above are large a general assortment of all kinds of our delicacies, Straps, etc., and all of them are the best of the kind in the quality. [See]